

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 807 W. 26th St., N.Y. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years.

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation. Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

Washington Letter

WASHINGTON LETTER

Preparing for National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

PRESIDENT WILL RECOMMEND

Strong Effort Will be Made to Get Larger Appropriation Through Congress—Roosevelt Shows Great Interest and Will Probably Make Suggestion.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Diplomatic representatives of at least two great commercial nations, the governors of more than a score of states, mayors of cities throughout the entire country, and men intimately connected with the business life of the nation are to gather here next month to attend the fourth annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, the call for which has just been received in Washington. The attendance gives promise of being the greatest ever known at a convention of this description, for in addition to notification to its members, the organization's officials have sent out broadcast invitations to thousands of others interested in the general question of waterway development to be present at the big gathering.

The convention, according to the call, will under no circumstances consider any special project for river and harbor improvement, but, as is emphasized, it will stand for a broad and liberal policy on the part of the national government for all such improvements as have been favorably passed upon by the board of United States engineers and by it recommended to the Congress of the United States. The call continues:

"This convention will demand of the Congress of the United States that a more liberal proportion of the revenue of the government (heretofore about three per cent) derived from commerce be expended in its interest in improving the national channels of trade and transportation. It is important that all interests, mercantile, manufacturing, mining, agricultural, state and municipal, should show their desire for, and concern in, the improving of the rivers and harbors of the country, and in no more effectual way can this be done than through this national convention, held at the nation's capital, in the presence of the nation's lawmakers."

The fact that the convention will be opened almost simultaneously with the convening of Congress undoubtedly will have great effect on the minds of the national legislators. There is to be a strong effort made to push the rivers and harbors appropriation bill through Congress at the first session. Hitherto this measure has been held up until the last moment and has formed a storm center around which local and political interests have fought. The importance of the bill to the business and commercial interests of the country is so great that an effort will be made to remove it from the realm of politics and establish it in a position where calm and cool consideration can be given it.

Unfortunately, President Roosevelt has been compelled to observe an iron-clad rule not to address conventions in the capital city. If this were not so, there is not the slightest doubt that the Chief Executive would have made a ringing address at the convention. His well-known sympathy with policy of waterway development—a sympathy so practical that it led him into taking a long voyage down the Mississippi River to investigate at firsthand the needs of the big stream—has led him into promising, although he is unable to make a speech at the convention, that he will embody strong recommendations in his message to the Sixtieth Congress, urging more liberality in appropriations putting the waterways of the country in first-class condition.

It is probable, however, that the administration will be represented by some cabinet official. It would surprise no one if Secretary Root were chosen. The Secretary of State is an enthusiast in the matter of drawing closer together the United States and the South American republics through more intimate commercial and political relations. To bring this about he has advocated on several occasions the development of this country's waterways, in order that the cheapest transportation may be provided for the carrying of the goods and products from American mills, farms and mines to the republics lying South. For this reason it is highly probable that Secretary Root will be the official mouthpiece.

WILL RETURN DUTIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Patrons of the Custom house having goods in the bonded warehouses at the time of the fire, applied to Collector Stratton yesterday to have the duties paid on the goods refunded.

Stratton says that he will grant the request, returning the money on the ground that at the time the goods were in the custody of the government.

BEST OF PROOF.

That Hyomei Will Cure All Forms of Catarrhal Diseases.

Testimonials could be printed by the thousands, many of them from Astoria and nearby towns, that Hyomei is an absolute cure for all catarrhal troubles, but the best proof of its unusual curative powers is the guarantee that T. F. Lawrence give with every outfit that he sells, "Money back if Hyomei does not do all that is claimed for it."

Hyomei is not a secret remedy. Its formula is given freely to physicians who want to know what they use when they prescribe Hyomei. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Law by serial No. 1418.

By breathing Hyomei, the healing medication goes directly to every nook and corner of the air passages where the catarrhal germs may lurk, and disinfests and heals. To be convinced of this you have only to give it a trial, remembering that if it does not cure, T. F. Lawrence will refund your money.

There is no dangerous stomach druging when Hyomei is used. Its healing medication is breathed through a little pocket inhaler a few times daily, and almost immediately a great improvement is noticed and quick recovery follows.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, and in most cases is sufficient to cure the disease, making it only a scientific treatment but one that is highly economical. Get an outfit today from T. F. Lawrence if you have any symptoms of catarrh, and see how quickly the remedy relieves and cures.

SOME STATEMENTS

REGARDING NEW THEORY

Followers of Cooper and His Novel Idea Give Reason for Their Belief in Him.

With the theory that human health is dependent on the stomach and with a medicine which he says proves this theory, L. T. Cooper, a comparatively young man, has built up an immense following during the past year.

Cooper has visited most of the leading cities of the country, and in each city has aroused a storm of discussion about his beliefs and his medicines. Wherever he has gone, people have called upon him by tens of thousands, and his preparation has sold in immense quantities.

The sale of this medicine has now spread over the entire country, and is growing enormously each day. In view of this, the following statements from two of the great number of followers which he now has, are of general interest.

Mrs. Angus Viggenhouser, of 942 St. Louis Avenue, Chicago, has the following to say on the subject of the Cooper preparation: "For more than ten years I was broken down in health. I could not sleep and I was very nervous. Gradually I began to lose my memory, until I could not remember things from one day to another. I had severe pains and cramps in my body, and I would at times see dark spots before my eyes. I was unable to do any work whatever, as my strength was falling. I had no taste, nor could I take any medicine. I gave up hope of ever being well again when I read of Mr. Cooper's remedies. I decided to give them a trial, and I began to feel better at once. After taking the medicine for two weeks I can say that I am a new woman. I can eat with enjoyment, the pains in my body have left me, and I am stronger than I have been for years.

"I cannot say enough for Mr. Cooper's remedies. They are wonderful, for they have done everything claimed for them in my case."

Another statement by Mr. W. B. Stewart, 109 W. Madison street, Chicago, is as follows: "I have had stomach trouble for years, and anyone who is afflicted this way knows what an awful distressed feeling it causes. Many a time I have felt that I would give most any price to be cured. It was by accident that I heard of this man Cooper's remedies. I immediately made up my mind to buy a treatment of him I used it for about two weeks, and it is impossible to tell how much good it has done me. I feel altogether different. I have more life and energy than I have had for years. This medicine certainly does stimulate and strengthen the whole system. Tired feeling and weak condition of the stomach has entirely passed away. I feel well again."

We sell Cooper's celebrated medicines which have made this wonderful record in all parts of the country.—Charles Rogers.
